PLEASE NOTE: Accepted artists will be required to sit one day at the gallery.

OTHER NOTES:

Artists' accepted works that are sold before the opening of the show are liable for the sales commission of 20% to the South Delta Artists' Guild. If an artist withdraws an accepted work from the show they break the signed contract (the entry form) to show the work and deprive other entries from being accepted. Such action on the part of an artist may result in them being prohibited from future juried shows.

South Delta Artists' Guild reserves the right to use accepted entries for promotional purposes. However, it is understood that copyright always remains with the artist and the use of the artwork is for the promotion of the Oil & Water show only.

Additional prospectus forms may be picked up at the Gallery or downloaded at www.southdeltaartistsguild.com.
