Ailsa Brown – "A Sense of Knowing"

Coral Gurney - "Lion Heart"

Courage of the Brushes

April 3 - 25

Creating art is challenging, so sharing everyone's endeavours, from beginners to more experienced painters creates a supportive experience for all participants.

Lynne Mackenzie - "In the Hebrides"

Limitless

May 1 - 30

In these strange times when there are so many restrictions on our lives, we turn to the limitless worlds of art.

Leah Terpsma - "Coast"

With Gratitude

June 4 - July 4

The last year and a half has changed the way we look at the world forever. Priorities have changed. Our connections to each other may have been loose and easy before Covid-19, but now we realize how much we rely on one another. Essential workers (who keep us all healthy, moving, safe, sane, fed, connected and educated) are super-heroes! We laud them with this special show about gratitude to the front-liners who have served us so well. Our gesture of appreciation is original art works at adjusted prices for our essential workers and their support staff. The members of the South Delta Artists Guild thank you for your vital contribution.

Ellen Hines - "If Wishes were Fishes"

Summer Showcase

July 9 – August 1

"Everything good, everything magical, happens between the months of June, July and August."

Quote by Jenny Han

Lea Price - "The Girl with the Pearl Earring"

Past Times

August 6 – August 29

Time is an illusion we weave our lives through. There is the now, the future, and of course, the past. We are influenced by the latter, helping us make the decisions of what we want to say. By using the past, we can access our minds to our experiences and bring new ideas into focus.

Gillian Olson - "Ska'ana at Sgang Gwaay"

Changes

September 3 – 26

It is said that the only constant in life is change. Not all changes are good but through experimentation and change we grow.

Sharee Reynolds - "Orca"

Ode to Emily Carr

October 1 - 31

"Do not try to do extraordinary things, but do ordinary things with intensity"

Emily Carr – A Canadian artist known for her paintings of Westcoast aboriginal culture and environment. 1871 - 1945

Artfully Anonymous

October 16 – 23

Online Only

Our annual fundraiser offers a large selection of 10" x 10' paintings for $100. Find out who painted your favourite artwork after you buy it!

TBA

November 2 - 14

Private Shows

One or more of our member artists will hold a private show or shows during this time.

Maureen Mitchell - "The Christmas Flower"

Celebrations

November 19 –
December 19

The Christmas Flower's association with Christmas comes from a Mexican legend. It is said that a small child gathered humble weeds from the roadside to place at the church altar on Christmas Eve. The congregation witnessed a Christmas miracle as the weeds turned to brilliant red and green flowers.
